MRS. CARLETON RANDALL CANADA
the former Miss Brenda Joyce Holt

Wed In Double Ring Ceremony

The marriage of Miss Brenda Joyce Holt to Carleton Randall Canada took place Saturday evening, November 25, at 7:30 in New Concord Presbyterian Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh E. Holt of Spout Spring, and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Dorothy B. Canada, of Pamplin, and Carleton D. Canada, of Richmond.

The bride is also the granddaughter of Mr. Fountain Holt and the late Mrs. Holt, of Brookneal, and the bridegroom is the grandson of Mrs. J.W.D. Canada of Pamplin and the late Mr. Canada.

The Rev. Robert Evans, chaplain at Virginia Baptist Hospital, officiated at the doublering ceremony.

Mrs. Ann Reynolds, soloist, and Miss Keran Marshall, organist, provided a program of nuptial music.

The bride was escorted and given in marriage by her father. She wore a floor length gown of peau de soie with over skirt of organza, featuring an empire waist line. The bodice, organza sleeves and high neckline were accented with chantilly lace. Her Victorian style veil fell from a crown of chantilly lace bordered with seedless pearls and sequins. She carried a bouquet of orchids, pink roses, and baby's breath.

Mrs. Morris P. Hodnett, of Spout Spring, sister of the bride was matron of honor and Miss Jean Holt of Alexandria, also a sister of the bride, was maid of honor. They wore floor length gowns of deep rose peau de soie, featuring a high neckline and an empire waist, with long sleeves. They carried bouquets of roses, carnations, and chrysanthemums in shades of pink and lavender.

Attendants were Mrs. John W. Canada, of Appomattox, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, Mrs. Larry Doss and Miss Donna Gibbs, both of Lynchburg, and Miss Patsy Sparks, of Richmond. Their dresses were identical of that of the honor attendants, and carried identical bouquets.

Miss Joanie Canada of Appomattox, niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl. She wore a floor length dress of cherry pink satin.

Michael and Todd Hodnett, both of Spout Spring, and the nephews of the bride, were ringbearers.

Following the ceremony the bride's parents were hosts for a reception, entertaining in the social hall of the church.

The mother of the bride wore a floor length gown of blue crepe and pink orchid; the mother of the bridegroom wore a mint green gown with matching orchid. The grandmother of the bridegroom wore a blue dress and white orchid.

The bride is a gradue of Appomattox High School and Virginia Baptist Hospital School of Nursing. The bridegroom is also a graduate of Appomattox High School and Smithdeal - Massey Business College in Richmond.

Following a wedding trip to Williamsburg the couple will live in Richmond.

Sorority Met Monday

Delta Zeta chapter of Beta Sigma Phi Sorority met Monday at the home of the chapter's president Mrs. Bobby Stanley. Amy Nash and Rene McGrath were warmly received as the chapter's guests for the evening. Mrs. Randolph Smith was elected as new Extension Officer to fill the vacancy left by Connie McDearmon. Carolyn Coleman was appointed new Service Committee Chairman.

Plans were made to administer the Pledge Ritual to the members of a new Beta Sigma Phi chapter in Deltaville. Delta Zeta has accepted the opportunity to "Friendly Venture" there. Service projects were discussed including assisting in the collection of Toys for Tots, a project of the Marine Corps Reserve Units in Lynchburg.

Mrs. Jerry George announced that the chapter's members will be taking donations for chances on a Samsonite card table and four chairs. A donation of 25 cents will purchase one chance and a donation of $1.00 will purchase five chances. The drawing will be held on December 17th. Mrs. George pointed out that the table and chairs are of fine quality and would make an excellent Christmas gift.

The November social, a Christmas party for members and their children, was planned. The program for the evening was presented by hostess Brenda Stanley. Members discussed the small joys of daily living as they relate to overall happiness. There being no further business the meeting was adjourned and refreshments were served during the social hour which followed.
